Hey Eighth Graders--The lunchtime book club for April is I Will Always Write Back and it is available in Mrs. Bloom-Johnson's room if you want a copy to read in order to join in on the lunch book club in the teacher's cafeteria on the last day of April--Friday April 20 in the teacher's cafe.

Our book this month is nonfiction.

It started as an assignment. Everyone in Caitlin's class wrote to an unknown student somewhere in a distant place. All the other kids picked countries like France or Germany, but when Caitlin saw Zimbabwe written on the board, it sounded like the most exotic place she had ever heard of-- so she chose it. Martin was lucky to even receive a pen pal letter. There were only ten letters, and forty kids in his class. But he was the top student, so he got the first one. That letter was the beginning of a correspondence that spanned six years and changed two lives.
